Eastern U.S. Lashed By Spring Storms

A mixture of winter and spring storms battered areas in the eastern half of the nation today. The violent wintry weather which raked the eastern Rockies and Plains States appeared ended.

Riot Breaks Out In Paper Strike

Three Officials Hurt As Hundreds Look On

MECHANICVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—A force of 200 striking paper workers battled salaried employees and police in front of a struck West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. plant Thursday night.

Three officials were shoved, kicked and dragged, the company said.

The free-for-all broke out as 14 policemen attempted to escort 16 salaried workers into the plant. Moments before, Mayor Thomas Nolan pleaded with the strikers to break up the demonstration.

"This is anarchy. This is lawlessness," he shouted to the booing throng.

Hundreds of spectators crowded around the strikers' picket lines.

The United Papermakers and Paperworkers Union struck Jan. 20 in dispute over the wording of contract clauses governing seniority, grievances and management rights. Wages are not an issue.

The plant, in this Hudson River city 22 miles north of Albany, suspended operations. A total of 940 hourly workers were idled.

The company resumed paper-making last Friday. It divided 250 salaried workers into three shifts to operate machines.

This action touched off a demonstration last Friday night. It did not reach the magnitude of Thursday night's 3 1/2-hour melee.

When the police escort and salaried workers moved toward the main gate, the pickets met them head-on and fighting began in the middle of the street, newsmen said.

Four carloads of Saratoga County deputy sheriffs sped to reinforce city police.

A Westvaco spokesman said approximately 35 workers then entered the plant but six others went home because, he claimed, they had suffered bruises in the scuffles. Another 35, who had been scheduled to finish their shift at 11 p.m., left the plant at the same time, he said.

Reorganization Of Army Reserve Components Made

In line with the recent reorganization of the 83rd Infantry Division under the new pentomic concept, the 77th Tank Battalion with headquarters in Salem, has been inactivated.

The battalion, with units in Salem, East Palestine, Warren and East Liverpool, has been active as a reserve unit since it was initially activated in August, 1954. During this time the battalion was commanded by Lt. Col. Charles W. Bennington of Ellsworth.

To replace the 77th Tank Battalion as the 83rd Division tank unit, the 7th Medium Tank Battalion (Patton), 68th Armored, was activated March 20. This unit, which has a long history of accomplishments, also will be commanded by Lt. Col. Bennington.

In addition to units in Warren, Salem, East Palestine and East Liverpool, the battalion will have companies in Akron and Columbus.

All personnel of the 77th Tank Battalion have been reassigned to the new 7th Medium Tank Battalion.

In addition to the Battalion staff, Headquarters Co., 7th Medium Tank Battalion (Patton), 68th Armored, will be quartered in the Salem Armory on S. Lincoln Ave. The company will be commanded by Capt. Jack F. Herntstrom of 1750 East State St., who formerly commanded Co. G, 331st Infantry, which was inactivated March 20.

west after dumping more than a foot of snow in sections of Colorado and southwest Nebraska.

The snow belt extended eastward across northern areas into New York state.

Rains, severe thunderstorms and strong winds swept across many areas south of the snow belt.

The early spring snow carpet gave the northern areas a Christmasy scene, two days before Easter.

Whips Snow Into Drifts
Northeasterly winds of 20 to 30 m.p.h. whipped the snow into drifts as the storm lashed areas in Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan Thursday.

Driving conditions were hazardous.

Nearly a foot of snow was on the ground in La Crosse, Wis., while four inches fell in a six-hour period at Grand Rapids and Saginaw, Mich. Heaviest falls reported in New York state were three inches at Binghamton and more than an inch at Buffalo.

The extensive storm area, centered early this morning in Indiana, was expected to move to the middle Atlantic coastal region by tonight.

Wet weather was in store for Wet Weather Predicted most of the Great Lakes region, the Ohio Valley, parts of the middle Mississippi Valley and along the Atlantic Coast. Snow or snow flurries were indicated in the northern areas and showers in the Ohio Valley and along the Atlantic Coast.

South of the snow belt showers and thundershowers, with strong winds, dampened Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and rain, mixed with snow, pelleted Iowa.

Ahead of the cold front, extending southward, rain, thundershowers and strong winds were reported across the southern Appalachians and as far south as Alabama. Severe thunderstorms, with winds up to 50 m.p.h., lashed the Birmingham area and near Pelham, Tenn.

Four Trains Halted
Four westbound Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad trains, with 450 passengers, were halted in the western Nebraska-northeast Colorado snow-covered region while communications were restored. A railroad spokesman said the tracks have been cleared of snow and the trains were halted as a safety precaution.

Four carloads of Saratoga County deputy sheriffs sped to reinforce city police.

A Westvaco spokesman said approximately 35 workers then entered the plant but six others went home because, he claimed, they had suffered bruises in the scuffles. Another 35, who had been scheduled to finish their shift at 11 p.m., left the plant at the same time, he said.

USW Blasts at Steel Industry

Management Bent on Strike, Union Says

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The president of the United Steelworkers charges the steel industry with being "hell-bent on fomenting a strike" and with "deliberately promoting strike talk to stimulate scare buying of its products."

David J. McDonald said Thursday that proof of his charge was contained in a statement made by Clifford Hood, president of U.S. Steel Corp., the industry's pacesetter.

Hood, in replying Wednesday to an appeal by President Eisenhower to hold down a new spiral of inflation, said: "With the already high rates of wages, we in United States Steel see no reason why there should be more employment cost increases and more price increases again this year. We will exert every effort to avoid both."

Hood was not immediately available for comment on McDonald's prepared statement, but Joseph Block, president of Inland Steel Corp., branded the strike charge "ridiculous."

McDonald assured President Eisenhower that the USW "will enter our forthcoming negotiations with a deep sense of our responsibility not only to our own members but to the nation at large."

"I cannot emphasize too strongly our union does not want a strike," he added.

Current industry contracts expire June 30. Negotiations for new pacts open in mid-May in New York.

The Public Health Service should take over an expanded radiation control program, a group of scientists recommends. The cost: $50 million annually by 1965.

The suggestions came Thursday from the special National Advisory Committee on Radiation, scientific advisers to the surgeon general.

The group said it did not intend to be critical of the Atomic Energy Commission, which now has the primary responsibility for protecting the nation from radiation hazards. But it said there are serious weaknesses in the present radiation control setup.

The committee urged legislation to give the health service top responsibility in the field, with authority to develop a comprehensive program of control for all sources of radiation.

AEC Chairman John McCone told a Senate-House committee this week that if Congress wants to assign part of the radiation problem to other agencies, the AEC will cooperate fully. He said his agency plans to spend 20 million dollars on such work in the year ahead.

Ohio Students Air Complaints

Mozart's Native City Lacking In Pianos?

SALZBURG, Austria (AP)—Are there enough pianos here in Mozart's native city for students to practice on—especially if they come all the way from the United States to undertake expensive studies?

This was one of the questions raised by some of the students sent here this season from Oberlin College in Ohio for study at the Mozarteum Academy for Music and Art.

Complaints by some of the Ohio students leaked out to the local press Thursday. Some reporters estimated there were nearly 80 who complained that, among other things:

1. There are not enough pianos to practice on even though 10 were bought here with Oberlin-provided funds.

2. Instruction is insufficient or lackadaisical.

3. Living conditions for students are unsatisfactory, especially in view of accommodation costs.

After some of the "rebels" charged that the academy authorities and the Salzburg provincial government were trying to hush up their complaints, a news conference was held today to explain things.

Chief speaker was Dr. Bernard Paumgartner, president of the academy. He was flanked by representatives of the provincial government. Attending for Oberlin were David Robertson and Paul Steg, who are in charge of the Ohio students here. Also present were various teachers of the Mozarteum to defend their work.

Mozarteum authorities claimed the complaints as given to the local press were not substantiated. They claimed there are enough pianos for practice and that study conditions here are better than in Vienna.

Academy officials also claimed living conditions for students are the same as in America. They said that sometimes changes in courses had to be made but added that "Salzburg's many concerts and operas give the Oberlin students great opportunities."

Academy authorities had no ready comment on the report that one of the Oberlin students has "left Salzburg to go back to America and study mathematics instead of music."

Nevertheless, the complaints won a promise of prompt investigation and the correction of any inadequacies.

Realty Taxes In, But Off $40,000
A total of $2,162,750 has been collected in real estate taxes for the first half of 1958, according to Vincent C. Judge, Columbia County treasurer.

This is about $40,000 less than he anticipated, reflecting an increase in tax delinquencies.

The deadline for paying real estate taxes, without a penalty, was March 14.

A 75 per cent distribution has been made to the county political sub-divisions by Auditor Kenneth Bell, with the balance of the collection to be made sometime in April, he said.

3 Newsmen Ousted From Country

Purge Is Reported Under Way In Iraq

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A vast purge of army officers and government personnel in Iraq is reported by an American broadcaster just kicked out of the country.

Winston Burdette of the Columbia Broadcasting System said on arrival here Thursday that Baghdad prisons were filled "until there is no more room in them for all the political detainees."

Burdette implied that the purge threatens what efficiency was left in the Iraqi government and army after the cleanout last summer of partisans of the pro-Western monarchy and assassination of Premier Nuri Said. He said the latest wave of dismissals and arrests has decimated the corps of army officers and depleted the ranks of government personnel.

Lost Control of Situation
Premier Abdel Karim Kassem has lost control of the situation, the American correspondent reported. While Kassem speaks as a man of moderation, Burdette said, "his own people's court acts like an independent branch of government, ignoring his leadership."

Burdette was one of three American newsmen given less than 12 hours to leave Iraq by the revolutionary regime, which told them only "you have been here long enough."

The other two were Larry Collins of United Press International, who had been in Baghdad only a week, and William McHale of Time and Life magazines, who had been there two weeks, the same time as Burdette.

Denied Permission to Stay
Another American newsmen, Dennis Fodor of Time, was refused permission to stay when he flew in to Baghdad from Beirut Thursday.

There are only three Western newsmen still in Iraq—Stan Carter of The Associated Press, Erik Durshied of the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. and Douglas Brown of the London Daily Telegraph.

Alaska's acting governor, Hugh J. Wade, called for a four-nation fishing agreement as "absolutely necessary" to bring the Soviet Union into international fisheries control efforts—with the United States, Canada and Japan.

At Vancouver, B.C., the independent United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union called on the Canadian government to ask the U.S.S.R. to hold back its trawlers.

The Navy, which has been keeping the Soviet fishing fleet under surveillance as part of routine patrol duties, didn't indicate any alarm.

Rear Adm. Arnold W. McKee, commander of the Alaska Sea Frontier and the 17th Naval District at Kodiak, Alaska, said "Their presence in the southeastern Bering Sea is of no particular military concern to us, but of course we are keeping track of what they do. They are in international waters where they have every legal right to be."

Elizabeth Taylor Embraces Judaism
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor has been converted to Judaism, the faith of her late husband, Mike Todd, and of Eddie Fisher, the handsome singer she is expected to marry.

Although the English-born beauty, formerly a Protestant, apparently had been considering the step for more than two years, her decision caught Hollywood by surprise.

Friends and colleagues—even her agent—knew nothing of her conversion and the long studies that preceded it until it was announced late Thursday night in a brief press release issued by Temple Israel of Hollywood.

A spokesman for the Temple, where the ceremony was performed Thursday in the presence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, said the announcement was made at Miss Taylor's request. Conversions are not normally announced, he said.

The 27-year-old actress apparently first decided to embrace Judaism at the time she married Mike Todd Feb. 2, 1957. Todd, born Avram Goldbogen, was the son of a rabbi.

Rabbi Max Nussbaum, who conducted the simple rites, said the death of Todd in plane crash March 22, 1958, intensified her desire to enter the Jewish faith.

Unification of Germany In Stages Proposed

Troop Limitations, End to Berlin Division Are Also Envisioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain, France and West Germany were reported generally favorable today to a U.S. master plan for negotiations with the Soviet Union on the future of Germany.

The aim of the plan is to achieve the unification of West Germany and Communist East Germany in stages over a period of years. This would begin with creation of a loose federation and end with the conclusion of a German peace treaty.

Troop Limitations Envisioned
Limitations on forces in central Europe and an end to the division of Berlin also are envisioned as the plan progressed.

The foreign ministers of Britain and France are to discuss the program with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter next Tuesday.

West German representatives will join the talks Wednesday in advance of broader discussions among foreign ministers of all the North Atlantic Treaty powers meeting Thursday for a NATO 10th anniversary session.

The preliminary discussions are pointed toward an East-West foreign ministers meeting in Geneva May 11 and a later summit conference, as proposed to the Soviet Union by the Western powers Thursday.

It is an open question whether the U.S.S.R. would be interested in any part of the U.S. plan or in any other which the Western powers might suggest.

May Be Interested
Some officials say there is at least a slight possibility Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be seriously interested in negotiating an acceptable German settlement.

Others say that whether or not Khrushchev is interested, the Western powers must go into the negotiations with the Soviets prepared to put on the table a set of reasonable proposals which would dramatically demonstrate the willingness of the Western powers to make agreements with the Soviet Union on fair terms.

Sheriff's deputies today are pushing investigations of the breaking and entering of four establishments in Columbiana County early this morning. Ninety dollars in cash was taken.

At the Beaver Local high school thieves broke a window to gain entrance to the building and then knocked off the combination of the safe and drifted the pin and took $40 in money.

At the Rudabaugh feed mill in Rogers they broke small pane of glass in door to gain entrance, then moved a safe into the hardware department and broke it open in the same manner as the one at the Beaver Local School.

At the Smith feed mill on Route 30 at Cannons Mill they pried open the side door to gain entrance. Nothing was missing but the office was ransacked. They have no safe at that mill.

Deputies also are investigating a breaking and entering at Monty's Tavern in Kensington where a large amount of whiskey was taken.

Sheriff Russell VanFossan said the safe jobs were similar to recent ones.

Professor Says Radio Calls Ward Off Bird Pests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The old scarecrow may have some effect on crows but when it comes to Ohio's overabundant blackbird population farmers will have to modernize their attack—possibly using radio.

That is what Prof. Maurice L. Giltz of Ohio State University told a meeting here Thursday of the north central branch of the Entomological Society of America.

Giltz reported on a research project started three years ago because of corn losses caused by birds in Lucas, Ottawa, Sandusky, Erie and Huron counties at the west end of Lake Erie, and in Hamilton county along the Ohio River.

Later, the study was enlarged to include bird damage to ripening grapes and, to a lesser extent, damage to germinating corn and ripening stone fruits.

The only method found to help farmers fight the pests is bird calls broadcast by radio. Giltz said amplified bird calls caused the birds to rise from the fields when the birds were nesting or beginning to flock after nesting. The effect of amplified calls when they are feeding was not determined.

Giltz said when the birds congregate at night some roosts are estimated to contain two million birds. And his studies indicate that as many as five million blackbirds might be in roosts between Toledo and Sandusky—65 miles as the crow flies—in any one night.

Appeal Is Filed for Convicted Slayer

WASHINGTON (AP)—An appeal to overturn the conviction and death sentence of Walter J. Byomin, 43, of Cleveland, has been filed in the United States Supreme Court.

Byomin was slated to die last Nov. 7 for the shooting of a Wellington, Ohio, special officer, Edmund G. Smith, on May 4, 1957. A stay of execution was granted by Justice Potter Stewart to remain in effect pending final supreme court action on an appeal.

In the appeal petition, attorney L. L. Lanker of Columbus, Ohio, stated that Byomin's alleged confession "was obtained only after extensive grilling . . . in the sheriff's office over an extended period of time."

The petition also said Byomin was placed in leg irons that left scars. It claimed that he was pushed around, struck with a blackjack, denied food and water and not told he had right to counsel or that anything he said might be used against him.

CHILDREN OF THE BIBLE

by Patrick and Garrison

DAUGHTER OF JAIRUS

"And, behold, there came a man named Jairus . . . and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house: For he had one only daughter . . . and she lay a dying."

—Luke 8:41, 42

Jairus, the ruler of a synagogue, was the father of this little girl, who was twelve years old. Because she was their only child, she was for both parents the most cherished thing in life.

But now she lay dying. Endless prayers had been said for her. People skilled in the use of herbs and medicines had been called in. But nothing seemed to help. She got no better.

Then Jairus remembered Jesus, the Galilean, who it was said had healed many sick people. Ordinarily Jairus, who was an important man at the temple, would not have consulted Jesus about anything. But for his beloved little daughter, he was willing to do anything that might save her life.

So he hurried off in person to find Jesus and to ask His help. When he came to the place where Jesus and His disciples were talking with the people, there was such a crowd around Him that Jairus had to fight his way through.

But when he reached the Master, he threw himself at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house. Jesus agreed, but the multitude pressed around Him, asking questions and making requests. One woman who had been sick for many years, was healed at that moment merely by touching the hem of His robe.

As the group went towards Jairus' house, the ruler's servants came out to meet him with the news that his daughter had already died. But Jesus reassured the father who had so much faith, saying, "Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole."

When they arrived at the house, a great crowd of mourners jammed every room, making the loud noises of grief that were customary in those days.

Jesus put everyone out of the house, and took only Peter, James, and John into the room where the dead girl lay. Bending over her still, lifeless little body, He took her cold hand and called, "Maid, arise."

In the breathless moment of silence that followed, the warm, pulsing spirit of life came into her body again. Slowly her eyes opened and she smiled at the kind Stranger who stood beside her.

Jesus immediately called her parents and told them to give her something to eat. When they saw their child alive again, they were astonished. "But he charged them that they should tell no man what was done."

Blasts Story in Union Publication

DiSalle Has Several Choice Answers for Labor Unions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle had a few answers to a labor publication story "Is DiSalle turning on labor?"

The story, which appeared in a publication of the International Assn. of Machinists, quoted Matt DeMore of Cleveland, official of the machinists state council, as saying a DiSalle-sponsored bill pending in the Ohio Legislature "could put every trade union in the state out of operation."

DeMore referred to DiSalle's proposal for enactment of an Ohio code of labor ethics which the governor says is similar to, but milder than, the AFL-CIO's code.

DiSalle Thursday released copies of a letter to the editor of the publication it said in part:

"Let me first of all say that, if I was elected governor of Ohio, it was not because of Matt DeMore, but in spite of him."

"All during the primary election he was a constant critic. From the primary to the general election, I could not classify him as a friend. Accordingly, I am not at all surprised that he continues in his usual irresponsible manner."

"The objectives of the legislation are the same as subscribed to by the AFL-CIO when they adopted the code of ethical practices. I have repeatedly told the press that, should there be some modification in the language necessary, that I am not adamant and that the sub-committee considering the legislation is free to make any corrective changes necessary."

"As a public official, I feel that I must be as objective as possible and that my position cannot be dictated or arrived at through pressures created by Matt DeMore or any other individual or movement."

Asked whether he was "parting company" with labor, DiSalle said his position on labor legislation "is no different now" from what it was before the election.

He pointed out that he recently approved a labor-backed law to allow simultaneous payment of supplemental unemployment benefits and state jobless compensation, and that he is still for a "reasonable" minimum wage law in Ohio.

In Cleveland, DeMore said DiSalle was probably upset by his criticisms.

"I did not attack him personally, but when he supports and proposes bad legislation I reserve the right to criticize that legislation, notwithstanding my support of him during the recent elections," DeMore stated.

He continued: "The governor errs when he states that I failed to support him."

What Do You Think About Berlin?

Suddenly there is intense curiosity in Washington about popular opinion on the Berlin crisis and the problem of German unification. Critics are pointing out that the American people, their newspapers and their politicians are in a state of ignorance about this whole complex matter that has grown like a deadly fungus over the ruins of Hitler's defeat and the resurgence of German energy and ingenuity in West Germany and East Germany.

This could be the preparation for one of Washington's favorite tricks, which is to blame popular opinion for government shortcomings. But there is more to it this time.

It is the anxious awakening from a long period of international sleep-walking by a succession of government officials in the United States, Britain and France. During their ambulant dream, the idea gained currency that nothing could be done about Germany because anything the officials might try to do would weaken their positions relative to the position of their wartime ally, the Soviet Union.

Frustration progressed into negativism — and the stage was set for Nikita Khrushchev to throw the West into a panic by announcing last November that Russia would turn its control of Western access to Berlin over to East Germany if its proposal for the city's future had not been accepted by the end of May. Its proposal was to make Berlin a free city, with Western forces evacuated.

THE PANIC continues. There is nothing in the negativism of the United States, Britain and France to offset the grim positivism of the Soviet edict. Hence, the scramble to come to new terms belatedly and to get on with the put-off task of settling the outcome of World War II. Japan and Italy long since have been given settlements. Germany has been kept an open issue because it suited both sides to use it for leverage in a contest for postwar influence.

But it no longer suits the strategists in the Kremlin to keep it an open issue. Starting immediately with Berlin, they intend to close it. Whether they intend to do this because they have lost advantage or believe they are strong enough to gain advantage is one of the questions Western diplomats must answer before they open negotiations.

Their sleep-walking is over. The illusion that nothing needed to be done because nothing had been done and therefore everything could drift along indefinitely is over, too. The handful of Americans who had dared to be querulous about this in the past were accused of being unfair to John Foster Dulles, who was said to be doing everything in his power.

But to turn the tables on the American people and to blame them for not showing more initiative, now that the Soviet Union has broken the impasse, is to ignore the cause for their neglect.

THEY WERE NEVER encouraged to carry on debate about Germany or the disposition of the problem created when the Russians were allowed to move into Berlin. They were slapped down if they suggested that Western Allied occupation of West Berlin, at the mercy of the Soviet Union, whose troops surrounded the city, was a bear trap ready to close on the leg of a helpless victim.

They were led to believe everything would come out all right if they were patient and understanding; that there was no use trying to negotiate with the Soviet Union because its word could not be trusted and its intentions were unfriendly.

Now they are asked to believe they were too patient, too understanding, that a summit conference with the Soviet Union is the only way out and everything will come out all right if they have faith.

It is two months before the probable date of a summit conference. Perhaps by then the understanding reached between Washington and London will have been shared with Paris, and the Western Allies no longer will seem to be improvising a formula.

The American people are wide awake now. They will try to follow every twist and turn of diplomatic maneuver designed to minimize Khrushchev's advantage in being first to deliver an ultimatum. They may even start to debate, in the good old-fashioned way.

Unions Try a Governor For Size

The question in Columbus that needs answering most at the moment is whether a Democratic governor and a Democratic majority in the General Assembly are going to be hog-tied by the labor union chiefs who helped to put them into office.

The question became important recently when Gov. DiSalle was strongly rebuked for his proposal to help clean unionists get rid of dirty unionists by enacting the framework of the AFL-CIO ethical practices code into law.

He was told by the AFL-CIO executive committee, in effect, that his ideas were not welcome and should be re-evaluated before he pressed for their acceptance by the General Assembly.

This served notice at the same time to members of the General Assembly that they should not be concerned with the problem of union reform; that reform was none of their business and in fact was not a proper subject for Ohio to legislate on because the subject was being taken care of in Congress.

Undoubtedly, unionists taking this position are confident of their strength in the General Assembly and confident of their ability to beat the governor if he wants a showdown. They would not have locked horns with him, otherwise, at a time when they are backing so many proposals for new laws and changes in existing laws. They think they have the votes in their pocket to prove they are too strong to tackle.

But not every Democratic representative and senator in the Assembly owes his election to union backing. And among those who do owe their election to every one thinks his mind and his vote belong to the unionists who backed him.

The question is whether there is any way to live politically with the unions, short of surrender to their leaders' dictation.

For Gov. DiSalle, who is beginning a four-year term, the question is far from academic. It looks as a challenge to his ability to run his own show. The unions have tried him for size.

It's Called 'Winter Weariness'

Few of us realize what winter has done to us until bad-weather tension eases up in the first few days of springtime.

"Winter weariness" is more weariness than we had realized.

We are tired of more things than cruel winds and bone-chilling temperatures — more things than snowdrifts, ice, baldy automobiles and overshoes.

We are tired of legislative bickering and political potshots. We are tired of altercations and second-guessing. We are tired of little men rattling around in big jobs.

We have had all we want to stand of prejudice and bitter-ending. We are fed to the teeth with inequities, back-knifing and fulminations that fill the air with confusion. Each springtime there is an illusion that if all of us cleared our minds of what has been troubling them during the dark days of winter, we could get a second wind and run the rest of the race without the handicap of the weariness that has been holding us back.

That is what makes Easter, itself, seem precious. Human beings felt this way about springtime more thousands of years ago than Easter is old. They called it Eostre in honor of a goddess who symbolized the dawn — and then as now it was a time for men to take a fresh grasp on life.

It could be wished that all men who bear responsibilities that affect the lives of others would pause at the end of winter, when it finally relents, to consider how weariness may have affected their judgment. Having so done, they should make no more decisions until they are rested. If it worked out that nothing was decided for a fortnight, that might not be such a bad idea either.

Once Over

I believe the need of the hour is not for atomic bombs but for atomic faith.

I believe that all the wisdom of all the scientists in the "fusion of elements" can accomplish nothing compared to what man can accomplish by a fusion of the Gospels and the Psalms.

I believe mankind is yearning for an end to guided missiles and a chance to put his faith in the "radioactivity" of the family altar, the church steeple and the dedicated home.

I believe in the "atomic" rosary beads, the "atomic" prayer book and the "atomic" thumb-worn family Bible.

I believe mankind will hear the only true "all clear" signals not from factory whistles and sirens but from belfries of church, synagogue and mosque.

It is my belief that it is not through the blinding glow of hydrogen bombs that man will end his worries but through a blinding glow of Faith, Hope and Charity.

I subscribe to these further beliefs: That in this Easter season a baffled, harassed and fumbling mankind can see the way back to the right paths only through the "mystery weapon" of The Ten Commandments.

That on this Good Friday no utterance of public officials, statesmen and world leaders can be as important to mankind as the message available to millions through the reading of St. Matthew's story of Christ's suffering at Gethsemane and Golgotha. And that on Easter morning no speech, no paper, no conference announcement can move man more than the seven words, "He has risen. He is not here."

I believe that with civilization threatened as never before the answers are to be found in outstretched arms on a crucifix, the stone rolled away, the eyes of a child, the lights on the templed hills, old-fashioned family devotion and dedication to kindness and peace.

WHO REMEMBERS Joe Tracy, who died the other day at 85 in a Long Island hospital? Well, he had been long in obscurity but there was a period when his name was world famous and the mention of him stirred the pulse. He was one of the daredevil racing drivers of the Vanderbilt Cup and Ormond Beach age, competing with all-time greats. Tracy drove a Peerless in numerous events and once piloted a long-forgotten car, the Locomobile, back in the days when it was a question whether the chain-driven or shaft-driven car would be adopted by the industry. It seems to this department that most critics were much too rough on "First Impressions."

One Way to Make a Summit Trip Pay

Three Expenditures

By JAY G. HAYDEN

Congressional spring vacations, giving opportunity for members to feel out opinion among their home folks, traditionally have determined the outcome on vital legislation. Rarely has this prospect been more apparent than in the 10-day layoff which began Thursday.

The three issues that hang most prominently in the balance all are in the realm of expenditures. They are the composition and amount of defense appropriations, allotments for foreign aid and domestic spending for housing, airports, unemployment relief and education, which nearly all congressional new-elects, mostly Democrats, went overboard for in their speech-making last year.

What happens in those categories will decide whether or not President Eisenhower is going to achieve his budget balanced at 77 billion dollars for the fiscal year beginning next July.

A surprising feature of this Congress to date is the scarcity of public clamor either way regarding the above items. Never within memory, say the legislative old-timers, have their incoming mail-bags been so empty of advice from constituents.

This is particularly so concerning the crisis stirred up by Nikita

Khrushchev's threat to drive the Western Allies out of Berlin and the demand for more military spending because of that situation.

A SURVEY published Monday by the New York Times found that "President Eisenhower's no-retreat (from Berlin) policy has overwhelming popular support in the nation though many Americans know little about the history of geography of the project."

The American people are concerned but not frightened, ill-informed but trustful of the administration and particularly of the President, nonpartisan in their approach and confident that somehow the crisis will pass like those in Lebanon, the Suez area and Quemoy and Matsui. Many believe the Russians are bluffing."

Confidence in the President is indicated in the rise of 10 points (49 to 59 per cent) since last November in his popularity rating in the Gallup Poll. This change has occurred in face of a drum-fire of congressional speechmaking, to the effect that U.S. defenses are greatly inadequate and its foreign policy management (particularly since Secretary of State Dulles fell ill) grossly inept.

It may be due in part to these signs of growing White House strength that the Democratic congressional leaders are delaying most of the important decisions until after the spring rest period. And it could be also that these leaders are waiting to see which way the Berlin cat will jump.

FOR EXAMPLE top ranking members of the House Appropriations subcommittee, handling military expenditures, are known to be planning to hold off House floor debate in that field until sometime in May. One of them said: "By that time we should have a clearer picture of the Berlin situation. If the outlook there grows more dangerous, there will be no stopping Congress from increasing armaments and military personnel way beyond the President's recommendations. On the other hand, if the situation seems to be quieting, it is quite possible that Congress will cut defense appropriations considerably below the budget proposals."

The same holds generally for the foreign aid appropriations, which Eisenhower has declared most important of all. Congressmen predominantly believe that some voters are heavily opposed to help for foreigners, all and sundry. It's different of course if the help is in the form of goods manufactured in the home town or among rural voters, agricultural surpluses.

Even though the House, on Tuesday, voted against its own Appropriations Committee by adding $177,880,500 to the amounts that the committee has recommended in the foreign aid program, the $2,657,402,994 total in the bill as it was sent to the Senate was still $207,551,531 less than Eisenhower has asked.

A definite surprise concerning the heavily Democratic Congress is its essential conservatism. Even as to housing and airports, which drew presidential vetoes last year, actions all have been in the direction of cutting down, rather than increasing the allowances originally broached.

Judged by vetoes so far, vetoes in those fields no more can be overriden this year than last year. North American Newspaper Alliance

'Joltless' Retirement

By WILLIAM RAPP

The United States Government, largest employer of labor in the country, is pioneering a new approach to retirement.

The groundwork is being laid at the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, operator of the nation's largest retirement program — the Social Security System.

HEW, which has 55,000 men and women on its payroll, has queried them on a plan which would allow retirement at 62 and immediate rehiring for a period of up to five years. The last five years would be spent on an increasingly shorter and less taxing work schedule.

Gradual retirement would be achieved by one of several methods currently under study by HEW, including: Increasingly longer vacations each year; a shorter work week; increasingly shorter work days; shift of responsibility to younger people and transfer to less demanding duties.

Behind the decision to mount a massive demonstration retirement program is the growing national loss of skilled manpower shunted to the economic sidelines by mandatory retirement plans in industry. The financial drain on the Social Security System would be slowed as retirement came later in life. The growing restiveness of older Americans toward a "life of idleness" would receive long overdue attention.

Individual disillusionment with retirement was highlighted in a recent study by Harry F. Johnson.

Brush Fire Wars

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Red-Inspired Conflicts Dot Globe

The war goes on despite the talk of summit conferences.

The war is on in the Atlantic, where Russian trawlers recently cut the most important cables of confidential communication between the United States and Europe. What they did once, they can do again when the exigencies of war demand it.

The war is on in Iraq, where the Communists have just conquered a country which used to be an ally of the West but which now withdraws from the alliance with Britain, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan and the United States and places itself at the service of Moscow.

The war is on along the borders of Turkey, where the Soviets recently lured an unarmed American transport plane across the line by false signals during bad weather and then shot down the plane, killing the 17 Americans aboard.

The war is on in the Far East, where the Red Chinese, who are supplied with arms and munitions by the Soviets, keep up a constant bombardment that threatens Formosa and the military position of the United States in the Pacific.

The war is on in Cuba, Bolivia, Venezuela, and other Latin American countries, where Communist money and influence are at work to cause friction with the United States.

THE WAR is on in the Philippines, where Communists have managed to get enough political influence to prod the government to engage in more and more controversies and quarrels with the United States.

The war is on inside the Western democracies, where Communists, working through stooges — many of them unwitting, on the so-called "liberal" side — manage to make political trouble for the existing administrations.

The Communist influence in France, for instance, remains a threat. The Communist alliances with certain "liberal" groups in Britain continually cause some of the latter to play the Communist game.

The pressure to suspend nuclear tests is steadily applied through worldwide propaganda by the Communists. They never intend to keep their end of any agreement but hope to stop America's scientific experiments.

In all the Western countries a psychology of fear of the Communist threat in Berlin has given impetus to a peace-at-any-price sentiment. The idea seems to be that the only means of assuring peace is to give the Soviets their way about West Berlin. This is being resisted in Washington and inside the governments of Britain, France and West Germany but, again and again, the pressure comes for some form of "compromise" that really means surrender.

THE SOVIETS, on the other hand, give nothing and do not understand the word "compromise." They rejoice over the talk in the West about "flexibility" or "free zones," because this means to them the beginning of a slow but steady process of one-sided concessions to the Communists.

The Middle Eastern campaign to date has been a big success for the Communists. They started out to win Nasser and they surrounded him with enough Communists to keep him hostile to the West. Now, with the Nasser ambition to control all the Middle East thwarted by the Communist conquest of Iraq, it is natural that the Egyptian president should feel miffed.

He denounces the Communists but he is beholden to them nevertheless and couldn't really cut himself off from Moscow even if he wished to do so. The Communist influence inside Egypt is extensive. It supports from Cairo the Algerian rebel movement and operates along the North African coast to Morocco.

All this is euphemistically called the "cold war" but it is hot enough to stir up rebellions and cause NATO to lose the benefit of the French Mediterranean fleet as well as several divisions of French troops that had to be diverted from the continental Europe to North African trouble spots within what has hitherto been the French sphere of influence.

The high command in Moscow, with hundreds of thousands of agents dispersed in every country of the world, is at the moment ruled by Nikita Khrushchev. He is a tough-minded, ruthless person who more and more resembles Hitler in his methods.

The Communist dictator, like his Nazi predecessor, knows when to turn on the soft talk and when to use threats. There was plenty of "flexibility" in the 1930's on the part of the Western governments as Hitler took one country after the other.

THE JARGON of "compromise" is being heard again. The idea being championed in too many places in the West is that a way should be found to satisfy Khrushchev by paying him some kind of price to keep a hot war from breaking out over West Berlin. Always the talk is that somehow Khrushchev must be given something, though, oddly enough, he isn't expected to give anything in return. This is called the "price of peace" and the prevention of war.

President Eisenhower is unmoved by schemes that imply a formula for retreat or surrender by the West. He finds, of course, that he must negotiate—that's the demand of the Western world and it's the way apparently to keep political opposition abroad from upsetting the existing governments in the West.

"Negotiation" does not need to mean surrender. Sooner or later public opinion in the West will be face to face with the fact that the so-called "cold war" sweeping the globe will have to be stopped. If it isn't halted, it is only a question of time until the Soviets will overplay their hand and a hot war will be the inevitable result.

Waiting for the Grass

By TRUMAN TWILL

I am fighting with all the caution and restraint at my command a verbal impulse to take apart a lawnmower as part of a summer preparedness program.

Caution and restraint rise from past experience. I have taken apart a lawnmower to get it ready for summer every spring since I became a householder.

It is a carryover from a boyhood impulse to take things apart to see if I could put them back together. Experience has taught me my aptitude for understanding the design and function of machinery is a blank.

Invariably, in the course of putting the thing back together after I have cleaned its bits and pieces I put something in backward. This is not discovered until the time comes to use it, and then the whole job must be done over post-haste.

Last spring when the crocuses appeared, I took apart a cart that hitches on behind the garden tractor. The lawnmower last year was turned over to an expert, who took it apart and put it back together to the tune of $50, which gives a mechanical misfit some idea what value an expert puts on his knowledge of worn-out parts.

The cart seemed to be something any fool could take apart and put back together... well, almost any fool. Naturally, while it was apart it had to be painted, and when it was reassembled it was a thing of beauty.

Then came the day when there was something to be moved in the cart. When it was hitched to the tractor — and only then — it was evident that the steel tube that is bent a certain way to make the cart level had been put in upside down. The cart was tilted at a 30-degree angle.

By the time the thing had been taken apart, the fresh paint was in sad condition, and when it had been put back together the paint job was ruined.

That is why I am fighting against the impulse to take apart the lawn mower. It needs to be cleaned up and greased. It needs to be adjusted. It could do with a paint job, and the carburetor and fuel lines should be inspected and made shipshape.

But it is no job for a muddle-head. That is plain. The lawnmower has been brought into the basement. A can of grease has been obtained and fresh oil. There is enough paint left over from the cart to do a bang-up paint job. All the wrenches and screw drivers, including the ones for those criss-cross screws they use these days, have been found.

But only a nincompoop would monkey with something beyond his comprehension. Even those two little pieces of metal in a lawnmower's wheels that make the reel move when the engine is pushing the mower are more than a bobby can master. This booby never gets them in the right way the first time; he always has to turn them around later when the lawnmower will only run backward.

If there are only two ways to do a thing — one right and one wrong — this booby invariably does it wrong. It should be 50-50 in a free choice, but it never works that way.

In short, tonight's the night I disregard caution and restraint and take apart the lawnmower for its annual reconditioning. A fellow has to do something while waiting for the grass to grow.

Dan Holloway will direct the combined choirs of the Locust Grove Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church of Salem in a cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Locust Grove Church. The church is located five miles northwest of Salem on Route 165.

The cantata was previously presented at the Salem church.

The text, set to the music of J. H. Maunders, recalls some of the incidents in the last days of the Saviour's life on earth. The rejoicing of the multitude with hosannas and palms, the view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet, the lament over the beautiful city, the scene in the temple and the lonely walk over the Mount at night form the chief features of the first part.

Part two opens with the supper of the Passover, followed by the infinite pathos of the Garden of Gethsemane, the sudden appearance of the hostile crowd, Jesus forsaken by His disciples. His utter loneliness among ruthless foes, the tumult before Pilate in the Judgment Hall, the Passage of the Cross, the tragedy and triumph of Calvary.

State Tax Board Denies Warren Appeal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state board of tax appeals today denied the City of Warren's appeal from a Trumbull County budget commission allocation.

Warren was allocated $225,000 and said it should have received $92,000 more.

But the board said it "would be indulging in pure speculation if it changed the allocation," it said it is the board's duty, as it was the duty of the budget commission, to take into consideration not only Warren's needs but also the needs of other political subdivisions.

Warren had alleged that more money than necessary was allocated to the county. But the board said no evidence was produced.

What medium do teen-agers rate "most practical"?

RADIO?

TELEVISION?

MAGAZINES?

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER?

ANSWER: THE DAILY NEWSPAPER. In a recent study of teens made by Eugene Gilbert & Co., the daily newspaper was shown to be a big influence on their living and spending habits. When asked which medium they considered the most practical, 54% said it was the daily newspaper, while only 17% named TV. To advertisers who want to get their share of the $9 billion teen market, we say, "Tell it to the teens in the daily newspaper!"

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

What Hollywood's Robert Montgomery is to Dwight Eisenhower, President of the United States, the singing cop Phil Regan, is to David McDonald, president of the Steelworkers, in a cold propaganda war which is absolutely expected to stop the pouring of hot steel for six weeks this summer.

Notice of Regan's great Irish tenor voice is not entertainment news for the moment. It's strike news. There was little doubt of that among some of us who spoke to that debonair "man of steel," David McDonald, the other day.

McDonald will send word along to those who make 85 per cent of America's steel that if there's no new contract by midnight June 30, there will be no steel poured by 12:01 the next morning.

No contract, no work. That was McDonald's word. There will be no postponement because of tension abroad -- "because if there is a strike the industry will have forced us into it."

McDONALD KNOWS the country must be prepared for such a walk-out of 500,000 men. And McDonald is a man of media -- a mellifluous new man compared with the McDonald of old, newly certain of himself, newly using old John Lewisian barbs and theatrics.

Not the least of these is Phil Regan's voice -- which is expected to sing the union's name and objectives into the hearts of over 100 million radio listeners these next few months.

This is being done with a daring expansion of radio time purchasing. Regan, who is the first entertainer to be sponsored "commercially" by a union, now sings and chatters his weekly union program over 500 stations reaching in to every state. These are the first of what are expected to grow to 2,500 within a month or so.

The cost is negligible to the national office in Pittsburgh. The 15-minute programs of three songs, some gay lines and a two-minute trade union talk by McDonald are sponsored in each city by the locals there.

If the United Steelworkers tried to buy straight network time, it would cost millions. But with the locals -- and there are 3,200 of them -- sponsoring each show, the cost runs less than $50 a week in many areas.

THE REGIONAL locals coordinate their broadcasts. Jim Griffin, a delegate from Youngstown, O., to the wage and strategy parley here the other day told me how it works.

His local sets its broadcast for one part of the week, while nearby units use other days so the program appears to be blanketing the area daily. Thus it won't be missed by the dial turners who don't catch any one broadcast.

When the radio show is tied up with the vast newspaper advertising campaign, the nation is almost completely saturated.

The Steelworkers won't run out of money under any circumstance. The national office has some 35 million dollars in assets and the locals have about as much or a total of 70 million, McDonald told us.

What will they fight for? First, there'll be a great propaganda drive for the three-month-every-five-years-in-addition to the regular annual vacation plan, about which McDonald has talked so frequently.

What he hasn't revealed is that he expects to hit the big companies with a demand that they take the money for such vacations out of the huge workers' pension funds which the corporations administer.

McDonald expects to make quite an impact with the charge that one of the big steel outfits drew some 500 million dollars out of its pension fund to build one of its vast new automated works -- and then repaid the fund. Point here is that there never really is a need for all the cash to be lying around.

SO WHY NOT use all this idle money to subsidize the three months vacation -- as a sort of early installment plan payment on eventual retirement? There will be every other conceivable demand with the big play for more cash, high jobless benefits, aid to the 200,000 unemployed and a big new medical care plan.

Up to strike time, this will be a propaganda war. Phil Regan will sing and will see that McDonald gets before those TV cameras just right for the big push.

This is a new era on the industrial front -- we've shifted from the muscle to the mind.

Goshen Group Plans Meeting Wednesday

The Goshen Township Home Demonstration Group will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday instead of April 3 as previously scheduled.

A tour of the Northeastern Ohio Poultry Association Plant at Columbiana will be a feature of the get-together. Members are to leave from Goshen Grange hall at 1:30 p.m.

Broadening of Fight On Communism Is Urged by DAR

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, while commending the FBI for "unceasing vigilance in safeguarding the interests of the nation," wants the United States to fight Communism on other fronts as well.

The DAR, concluding its three-day annual convention here Wednesday, approved resolutions which favor the end of exchange programs with Iron Curtain countries; advocate the end of foreign aid to such nations, and oppose recognition of Red China by either the United States or the United Nations.

The DAR said the FBI and congressional committees have presented "conclusive evidence that all Soviet emissaries and missions to capitalistic countries are part of the Communist system of espionage. . . ."

Hence, the DAR vote against continuation of scientific, economic or cultural exchange missions. The DAR also got behind moves to make it a criminal offense to distribute or sell pornographic literature and films. It renewed its opposition to world government, compulsory fluoridation of water, and treaties superseding the U.S. Constitution.

It came out against any change in dates for national holidays.

The DAR elected a new slate of state officers. They are Mrs. Stanley L. Houghton of Painesville, regent; Miss Amanda Thomas of Columbus, vice regent; Mrs. Harry L. Burden of Defiance, chaplain; Mrs. F. Weber Schneider of Toledo, Treasurer; Mrs. Marshall H. Francis of Steubenville, registrar; Mrs. Leonard McKee of Silver Lake, historian; Miss Laurabelle Mooney of Mount Sterling, librarian; Mrs. Carl W. LISBON — A public hearing on a petition for annexation of 441 acres of land east of Columbiana to the village will be held Friday, April 3, at 10:30 a.m. according to R. Max Gard chairman of the Columbiana County Commissioners.

The commissioners, Gard, Walter A. Hunston and Frank Wilson, made an on-the-spot check Thursday of the territories involved.

More than 27 per cent of all cotton consumed by the U.S. textile industry is consumed by South Carolina's mills.

B Strain Influenza Is Rampant In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The B strain of influenza, identified this week as a factor in Ohio's flu outbreak, caused January predictions to go awry, a State Health Department official said today.

Dr. Frederick Wentworth, chief of the Division of Communicable Diseases, said in January that it was reasonably safe to assume influenza would remain at a low level through the rest of winter and the spring.

But more cases were reported in Ohio last week than for all of 1958, and Dr. Wentworth said today that the B strain is at least partially to blame.

The B strain returns in numbers every few years, he said, but there is no way to predict when it will reappear. Its last notable appearances in Ohio were in 1950 and 1954.

U.S., Bulgaria Plan To Resume Relations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Communist Bulgaria—at the initiative of Bulgaria—have agreed to resume diplomatic relations.

The United States broke off relations in 1950 after Bulgaria accused Donald R. Heath, then U.S. ambassador, of espionage and demanded his recall.

Officials said Bulgaria had approached the United States several times about resuming relations. Each time the effort failed because the Sofia government refused to withdraw the charges against Heath.

The State Department said Thursday night it now considers it in the best interest of the United States to resume the relations because Bulgaria has at last withdrawn the Heath charges—calling them groundless.

2 Deputies Suspended As Result of Jailbreak

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff Paul J. Langley today suspended two deputies at the Mahoning County jail, William L. Driskell and John Downey, for "gross neglect of duty" in permitting a jailbreak Monday.

Both were suspended for an indefinite period, Langley indicated there would be a shakeup in assignments of the other 38 deputies.

Both deputies were overpowered in the jail escape and Driskell was kidnapped as the four fugitives made their getaway in his car. Driskell later was released unharmed. The four escapees were captured in Chardon after 42 hours of freedom.

Three Boys Sentenced In Greenhouse Theft

LISBON — An East Liverpool boy, aged 11, and two Glenmoor boys, 10 and 12, were sentenced Thursday afternoon by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin after they admitted breaking into the Keil Greenhouse in Glenmoor and stealing $11.

They purchased an air rifle with the money and were caught shooting at windows.

The 12-year-old youth was fined $15 and placed on a six-month curfew.

The 10 and 11-year-old boys were turned over to the Welfare Department. Records showed they had appeared in court previously for minor offenses.

4 Rural Mail Boxes Are Found In Yard

Four rural mail boxes and two name plates were found in the yard of the home of A. L. Bricker, 1475 E. 11th St., where they apparently were tossed by vandals, Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan reported today.

Mail boxes bore the names Sam Hill, Edward Seroka, Joe Domanski and Gower, and name plates Frank Entriaken and Rev. A. A. Kosower.

The sheriff's office is trying to contact the owners.

Mrs. Williams later pointed the gun at the two police officers and threatened to shoot. They tried to talk her into dropping her weapon, then knocked the pistol from her hand and took her off to jail.

There was no explanation for Mrs. Williams' belligerency.

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A 33-year-old Akron woman today fired a shot at a fireman who put out a burning cushion on her davenport.

Mrs. Mary Williams was held by police, but no charge was filed.

Fire Lt. Charles Worthington said Mrs. Williams refused to let firemen into her home when they answered the alarm. He climbed a ladder to the second floor, spotted smoke coming out of a window, and doused the burning cushion, then went downstairs.

There Mrs. Williams greeted him with a pistol shot. The bullet went over his head and lodged in a wall.

Mrs. Williams later pointed the gun at the two police officers and threatened to shoot. They tried to talk her into dropping her weapon, then knocked the pistol from her hand and took her off to jail.

There was no explanation for Mrs. Williams' belligerency.

ground, not knowing what else to do. Others scattered.

Hans Naumann, the lion's trainer, dashed after Ponto with whip, chair and pistol. Ponto headed for the lobby. It immediately emptied.

Apparently the huge beast was following the scent to other animals in the basement menagerie. He vainly tried to tear down the locked door to the basement.

Frustrated, he tried to climb onto a telephone booth in the lobby. Men with an aerialist's net cornered him there. With Naumann directing, a cage on rubber tires was wheeled in, and Ponto was safely stored away.

Berserk Man Beats Woman to Death

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP)—Joseph Roy Troyer, 38, went apartment hunting last week in Mount Clemens.

The last place he inquired was at a roominghouse where Mary Douglas, 84, a great grandmother was caretaker. Troyer, the father of two children, says she told him, "Oh, we don't allow children here."

"I guess I went berserk," Troyer told police Thursday. "It made me mad because I had heard the same thing everywhere. You can have cats and dogs, but no kids."

"I hit her with my open hand and knocked her down. She yelled at me to get out, that she was going to call the police. When she said the word 'police,' I went after her."

"I picked up an object and started beating her. I didn't intend to kill her, though."

Mrs. Douglas died of head injuries two days later in a hospital.

Troyer, an ex-convict and former gravedigger, was arrested after police learned he had visited the house on the day of the attack, March 17. He at first confessed the slaying without giving a motive, then repudiated his statement.

After arraignment on a charge of common law murder, which does not specify degree, Troyer gave police his explanation.

Three Salem Teams Eliminated From Little-City Basketball Tournament

3 Quarter-Final Games Set For Tonight

Only one Salem team remains in the Little City basketball tournament today after three were eliminated in Thursday night action at the junior high school.

Twenty-one teams began play on Monday and only seven are left including Stones of Salem and Marks Landing of Guilford Lake.

Three quarter-final games are on tap tonight at the junior high floor. At 9 p.m., defending champion Akron Joe's All Stars, which feature several players including Wally Walowac from Akron Good-year, clash with Marks while in the first tilt at 7, Stones take on Mahoning Valley View of Canton. In the second contest at 8, Bills Recreation of Struthers and Herb Lake of Youngstown U. take on Rosenblums of Cleveland.

In action last night Rosenblums came through with a thrilling 85-80 win over Herron Transfer. Recreation Billiards of Salem lost in the last five seconds to Mahoning 64-62, while Farmers Bank was beaten 78-61 by the Lee Stockon Collegians of Canton. Stockon now is in the Saturday semi-finals.

Norm Barage had 25, Ed Wilson 21 and Don Tobin 19 to pace Rosenblums who trailed 36-34 at the half but were ahead 56-53 after three frames.

John Mandish had 21, Jerry Myers and Pappy Joachim 16 each and John Stephenson 10 for Herrons.

Recreation lost a hair-raiser to Mahoning. The clubs were never more than six points apart. The winners took the game in the last five seconds on a jump shot by Tom Wilson. He was high for the winners with 28. Clyde Marks and Ken Bosu had 15 each for Recreation while George Alek had 12 and Tom Cope and Tim Laubscher 10 each.

Rec led 51-47 after three frames. Farmers were behind Stockon only 52-50 after three periods but were outscored 26-11 in the final quarter to get eliminated.

Paul Jones had 25 for the winners while Ed Jordan had 24 for Farmers.

The tourney semi-finals will be held Saturday afternoon at the junior high with games at 2 and 3:15 p.m.

The 2 p.m. game will pair the Lee Stockon Collegians of Canton against tonight's Akron Joe's-Marks Landing winner while the 3:15 p.m. contest will pair tonight's Mahoning Valley-Stones winner against the victor of the Bills Recreation-Rosenblums fray.

Each of Saturday afternoon's winners will meet for the title Saturday night at 9. A consolation game between the afternoon losers will be staged at 7:15 p.m. tomorrow evening.

CLOSER PENNANT RACE
BOSTON (AP) — American League President Joe Cronin is optimistic about a closer race for the pennant this year after returning from a visit to the Florida spring training camps.

Though his viewing was hindered by the rain, Cronin commented: "From what little I saw I became optimistic about a closer American League race this year."

Lavagetto Sets 70-Victory Goal for Senators This Year

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Cookie Lavagetto has set a goal for his Washington Senators. Not first place. Not even the first division. In fact, he's not pointing at any particular spot in the standings. "I want to hit a minimum of 70 victories," the swarthy Senator skipper said modestly. "That would give us nine more than last year."

"I think we can do it. We weren't as bad last year as the record indicates. We played fair ball until the last month of the season when the boys tired badly. I think we lost something like 13 straight in September."

"We have added youth and a little speed in an effort to offset this. I think we will also have a little better bench."

It is clear that Cookie is relying heavily on newcomers Reno Bertoia to make good at third. Ronnie Samford to plug the hole at

Teams Brawl, Giants Down Cleveland 7-5

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians have a day off today except for a brief review of fundamentals such as cutoffs, relays and pickoffs. It's their last open date in the springtime exhibition schedule.

There was some fist swinging during a ruckus that developed in the ninth inning of the game at Phoenix Thursday with San Francisco Giants. The Giants won 7-5.

The fracas started when a pitch thrown by Stu Miller dazed Vic Power. He got up after a few moments and walked to first base shouting at Miller, accusing the pitcher of throwing at him intentionally.

Jim Bolger, who went in to run for Power, was forced at second when Tito Francona grounded to second baseman Eddie Bressoud, who threw to shortstop Andre Rodgers at the bag.

Bolger ran out of the base line to spill Rodgers to break up a double play. Rodgers came up swinging. Players from both teams raced onto the field, but order soon was restored and play resumed.

In the dressing room later, Miller denied that he threw at Power intentionally. "He ducked into the ball," Miller said.

The bout at the Miami Beach Auditorium will be televised over the NBC network starting at 10 p.m. (EST)

Ohio North-South Players, Coaches Named

Cabas to Share Mentor Duties

Deitch Will Play On North Squad

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two all-Ohio stars, Benny Roberts of Middletown and Dick Reasbeck of Bellaire St. John, will lead the Rebels as they battle the Yankees in the second annual Ohio high school North-South basketball game June 20 at Troy's Hobart Arena.

Reasbeck, with 501 points in 18 games, was the second-high scorer in Class AA for the regular season. Roberts was the big reason the rebuilt Middies made it back to the state tournament. Both were first team all-Ohio selections.

Jackie Moore of Columbus East and Don Heit of Pickerington were named co-coaches of the southern squad by the mentors from the lower half of the state, and they'll have their boys in Troy for a week before the big game.

A year ago the South took the inaugural game in the series 93-72, with Middletown's Jerry Lucas scoring 33 in three periods.

Rounding out the southern squad are Merl Clum of New Philadelphia, a third-team all-Ohio choice, and honorable mentions Bill Glenn of Springfield, Eddie Clark of Columbus North, Larry Jones of Columbus East, and Ron Hall of Chillicothe in Class AA. Only Class A eager named was Junior Thompson of Stockdale, Pike County.

The northern team, to be coached by Johnny Cabas of Salem, runner-up for the state Class AA title, and Paul Bricker of Convoys-Union, which won 26 before losing a double-overtime regional game to Class A champion Edgerton, also has some top-flight talent.

The Yankees will have Paul Winterhalter of Tiffin Calvert, the state's top Class AA scorer with 635 in 19 games and a first team all-Ohio choice; second team stars Pete Grant of Toledo Central Catholic and Woody Deitch of Salem; third-stringers Jim Stone of Cleveland East Tech, Bill Mrukowski of Elyria and Kirk Gooding of Lima Senior, and honorable mentions Dan Mueller of Delphos St. John, Ron Sabo of Youngstown Chaney, and Bob Vogel of Massillon.

The Urbana Boosters Club, sponsors of the all-star fray, will select one more southern player, as will the Rebel coaches, to round out a squad of 10. The northern coaches also have on additional choice, and he could be either all-Ohio Ken Glenn of East Tech, captain of the all-state tournament team, or Denny Pawlowski of Toledo Central Catholic, who led the list of alternates in that order.

The Boosters Club announced speakers for the clinic accompanying the game as Dick Shriver of Miami University, Frank Shannon of Ohio Wesleyan, and high school mentors Howard Grimes of Cincinnati Hughes and Bert Barnes of Buchtel-York.

Kansas Wins Meet On Javelin Throw

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — A 258-foot, 4-inch javelin throw by Bill Alley helped Kansas win the Abilene Christian College invitational track and field meet Thursday but it may not be recognized as a national collegiate record.

There was a 12 miles per hour wind at Alley's back as he bettered the record of 237 feet 1 inch set by John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran last year in the NCAA.

Oliver Jackson, coach of Abilene Christian and director of the meet, expressed some doubt that the record would be recognized because of the wind.

Kansas won the meet with comparative ease, racking up 71½ points.

Alley went to Gainesville, Fla., to compete in the Florida Relays and the Kansas mile relay team, accompanied by Easton, left for Chicago to appear in the Chicago Relays.

In the meet here Abilene Christian was second with 56½ points; Ohio State, third with 43; Southern Methodist, fourth with 31½; Houston, fifth with 19, and Baylor, last with 15½.

Sports Sketches

By GORDON ARNDT

Now that the tremor of Salem's most successful basketball season in history has settled it is not too soon to be thinking about this summer's softball activities.

Last year the program started at the "opening" of the season several sponsors got teams in the leagues just under the deadline. Let's not have this happen again.

Officers of the Salem Softball Association should meet with officials of the Salem Park Commission in order to set up tentative plans.

There is no use doing anything in a mild manner. Responsible people should put their foot down on deadlines for entries, number of players to a roster, etc. and adhere to it with no exceptions. Quite often athletic programs collapse because rules are not obeyed. Why have them in the first place, then?

Salem is a sports-minded town. It starts in the fall with football and runs through the spring with track. These are sports played by high school athletes. Why shouldn't the adult or older class of athletes in Salem show as equal enthusiasm and interest.

Sure would facilitate matters to have things ironed out well in advance rather than waiting till the last minute. With a program now managers, sponsors and players would know where they are headed. They wouldn't should nothing be done "till later."

ON THE SCENE — Walthen Knebelkamp, who succeeds the late Bill Corum as Churchill Downs president, held a yearling on the track's backstretch when he posed for first official picture since taking office.

Will Lowest Score Stand Up In ABC?

ST. LOUIS (AP) — With all the fabulous scores that have been shot in other divisions of the 56th American Bowling Congress tournament, can the 1316 total that leads the doubles stand up?

When Bob and Glenn Gersch of Chicago assembled their total on Feb. 21, experts predicted it wouldn't last more than a week. Since then, more than 10,000 bowlers have taken a shot at the two-man title and failed.

Last year it took a 1414 total for Jim Vrenick and Bill Tucker of St. Louis to nab the two-man crown. The last time a set as low as the Gersch boys' won the doubles was in 1931 when Rafferty and Charles Reilly of Philadelphia rolled an identical tally, 1316.

The possibility that anyone will knock Ed Lubansky of Detroit out of the singles or all-events leads seems remote. He rolled 764 in the singles and 2116 in the all-events. Likewise, there does not seem to be any teams remaining with the potential to outpin the record 3243 by Lubansky's Pfeifers in the open team event.

TV Wrestling Stars To Mix Here April 8

Professional wrestling promoter Frank "Toar" Julian has once more arranged for a top notch mat card to be presented at the Hi-Neighbor Barn on the Pidgeon Road April 8. Julian said the main grapplers on the card would be television stars Frankie Talaber and Buddy "Nature Boy" Rogers.

Julian said Talaber can be seen on Channel 9 over Steubenville this Sunday afternoon between 3 and 4 p.m.

NBA Playoffs Deadlocked

Series Knotted 2-2 In Each Division

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — The stormy National Basketball Assn. playoff between the Minneapolis Lakers and the St. Louis Hawks was deadlocked again today and new verbal jabs flew from both camps.

The Lakers survived a third-period blowup to gain a 108-98 victory Thursday night and knot the Western division final playoff at the two games apiece in the best-of-7 series.

Elgin Baylor's 32 points and defensive job on a superb but tiring Cliff Hagan in the fourth quarter put Minneapolis over the top after the Lakers lost a 19-point lead. Hagan scored 38 points but was held to 3 in the final quarter.

"What I said earlier this week still goes," said Hawks Coach Ed Macauley. "The Lakers played the same way last night that they did Sunday, pushing and showing."

Macauley and owner Ben Kern of the Hawks charged Monday that the Lakers were using rough-house tactics. The Lakers denied it then and they did the same today.

The Laker-Hawk series resumes Saturday night at St. Louis. Boston and Syracuse, also 2-2 in the Eastern division, play their fifth game Saturday in Boston. They were idle Thursday night.

Top Golf Pros Enter Azalea Open Tourney

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Seven of the year's top 15 money winners were included in a field of 138 which opened the 15,000 Azalea Open Golf Tournament today.

The top man, Art Wall Jr., has pocketed $12,830 since the first of the year.

Other top money makers in the field are Doug Ford, Mike Souchak, Billy Maxwell and Bob Rosenberg.

After 18 holes today and Saturday the field will be cut to the low 60 pros and ties for the windup on Sunday and Monday.

Cleveland's Vic Power in an exhibition game.

A Miller pitch hit Power on the head and knocked him unconscious momentarily in the ninth inning of San Francisco's 7-5 victory over the Indians Thursday.

Hot words between the managers and a wrestling match between San Francisco's Andre Rodgers and Cleveland's Jim Bolger came in the wake of the incident, which drew these varying comments:

From Miller: "I never threw at anybody in my life. He ducked into the ball."

From Power: "He threw at me and he knows it."

Rodgers was involved when, following the incident, Bolger slammed into him at second base while breaking up a double-play attempt. While they wrestled, both benches emptied but no punches were thrown. Bolger had gone in as a pinch runner for Power, who was not injured but was taken out just the same. Power was not wearing a protective helmet, as required by most clubs.

In other games, Boston nipped the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in 11 innings at Scottsdale, Ariz., and in Florida, Cincinnati edged Los Angeles 2-1, Philadelphia downed Washington 5-2 at Clearwater, St. Louis whipped Milwaukee 6-3 at Bradenton, New York defeated Pittsburgh 7-2 at St. Petersburg, Detroit whipped the Chicago White Sox 5-2 at Tampa and Baltimore topped Kansas City 4-3 in 10

innings at Miami.

Ron Delany Will Seek 34th Straight Victory In Mile Run

CHICAGO (AP) — Is the time ripe for Ron Delany to run a four-minute indoor mile?

The Irish Villanova graduate student will shoot for his 34th straight mile victory Saturday night in the Chicago Relays at the International Amphitheater.

In the same arena and on the same board oval, the 1956 Olympic 1,500-meter champion from Dublin last year set his first indoor mile mark of 4:03.4.

Twice he has lowered it this season — 4:02.5 in the National AAU in New York Feb. 21, and 4:01.4 in the New York Knights of Columbus meet March 7.

Delany, who doesn't fight the clock, was pressed in setting his two recent records by the former Hungarian army officer, Istvan Rozsavolgyi. But Rozsy's visa has run out and he will miss the Chicago Relays.

Opposing Delany will be Phil Coleman, who has been second to the Irishman in the meet's Banker's Mile the last two years. Last year, the 1956 winner in 4:07.5, and Ed Moran, Penn State senior who ran a 4:01.7 outdoor mile in the 1958 National AAU championships.

Canadiens Trip Black Hawks 5-1

Bonin Scores Twice To Lead Montreal

By The Associated Press
Little Marcel Bonin, strictly a junior partner until recently, has hung his shingle right under that of Dickie Moore and Jean Beliveau as a member of the Montreal Canadiens' point-making line.

He scored two goals Thursday night to again trigger the Canadiens to a 5-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks in the Stanley Cup semifinal hockey playoffs.

The victory boosted Montreal to a 2-0 lead over Chicago, the same as Boston holds over Toronto in the other best-of-7 series. The Bruins used another little man, Guy Gendron, to defeat the Leafs 4-2 at Boston.

Bonin has scored four goals in two games as the third member of a line that was 1-2 in regular season National Hockey League scoring. Moore won the title with 96 points (a new league record) and Beliveau was second with 92. Both have scored a goal and have four assists, in the two games.

Bonin scored the first and fifth goals. His two linemates each added one and Boom Boom Geoffrion got the other.

Gendron, picked up last winter in the league draft from the New York Rangers, broke a 2-2 tie in the final four minutes with a 10-foot shot.

Four minutes later, Boston's Doug Mohn's and Toronto's Bob Pulford touched off a five minute free swinging brawl that finally punctuated a game marked by 21 penalties.

United Cage Tourney Set March 30th

The dead-line for entries is Saturday. Entry blanks and information can be obtained by writing or contacting Lee H. Bowman at the Farmers National Bank at

71 ILL FROM GAS

KANAB, Utah (AP) — Carbon monoxide poisoning hospitalized 31 Santa Barbara, Calif., high school students and 41 adult advisers for four hours Thursday in this southwestern Utah community.

The group, members of the Calvary Baptist church in Santa Barbara, was returning by bus after a tour of the church's Navajo missions in northern Arizona.

Bus driver Walter McCully turned on the heater. Officers said it apparently sucked the exhaust fumes into the vehicle.

FRYING PAN MURDERER

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Bibb County officials are trying to decide what to do about the case of a boy charged with murder in the frying pan slaying of an infant with whom he was baby sitting.

Coroner Lester H. Chapman Thursday swore out a murder warrant against Andrew Howard Jr., 11, following an inquest into the death of Mary Jane Howard, 2.

The Negro boy gave no reason for the attack upon his distant kin, Chapman said. He estimated the child was struck 12 to 15 times with a cast iron skillet.

Questions and Answers

Q—Was the slant of the Leaning Tower of Pisa planned?
A—No. The white marble building sank into the soft earth on which it stands during the 200 years it was being built. It has tipped one foot during the last hundred years alone.
Q—How many committees are there in the U.S. House of Representatives?
A—There are 19 standing committees. Each committee has jurisdiction over specific matters. Any special committees which may be set up require special action by the House and expire at the end of the Congress.

A—The country is divided into 26 cantons, which correspond in a general way to the American states.

EYEING OUTER SPACE — When the Pentagon recently revealed that the United States had exploded three nuclear devices in space last year (Project Argus), scientists announced that radiation from the bombs spread around the edge of the atmosphere in an hour. How could they tell what went on 300 miles above the earth? Diagrams above give the answer. One means was by instru-

Sudden Fame

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Fame touches people at the oddest moments.

Even now Janet Gaynor, Hollywood's first Academy Award winner, gets a chuckle remembering how she first realized she had reached stardom—on a trip to the powder room.

It was in 1927 that she and Charles Farrell, another screen newcomer, teamed to make the unforgettable "Seventh Heaven."

"Success sometimes comes so unexpectedly," Miss Gaynor mused. "No one even noticed me when I walked into the theater for the premier of that film."

"But when I got up at the intermission to go to the ladies' room, the crowd would hardly let me through. I went into that theater an unknown, and came out a star. 'It all happened in a single hour.'"

Janet went on to the heights. For three years in a row she was the nation's top star at the box-office.

In 1938, weary of the screen grind, she retired. The next year she married Gilbert Adrian, the designer, and settled happily into a relative obscurity from which she emerged three years ago when she resumed her career.

Janet, a Philadelphia-born honey-blond with quick brown eyes, stood only five feet and weighed 100 pounds when she first went to Hollywood in 1926—with no stage experience. She now weighs 105 pounds and is three-fourths of an inch taller.

"I can't understand it myself—where that extra three quarters of an inch came from," she said, smiling.

She doesn't in any sense regard the two decades away from the screen as a lost period.

"You don't really ever lose anything — you gain something," she said. "They were wonderful happy years. I always loved to act, and still do, but strangely enough I didn't miss it one bit when I wasn't doing it."

"Miss the glamor? No, indeed. I had an even more glamorous life after I retired. The only reason I quit was because I wanted

ELECTRONIC DOGFIGHT — Fighter planes move so fast now that sighting a plane's missiles on the enemy is a problem. Sketches show how new GE optical sight attempts to simplify the difficulties. Cross hairs and a moving arrowhead (called a "bug") do the job. 1—Sight is in front of pilot. Arrowhead appears in right margin of circle—showing firing range is too great. 2—Pilot maneuvers to get enemy plane centered in cross hairs. Arrowhead moves to right as distance narrows. 3—When arrowhead moves far enough to show enemy within range, letter "F" appears on glass. Pilot fires. 4—Screen goes blank and signal sounds in earphones warning pilot to change course and avoid debris.

ment-carrying rockets which were fired into the band of radiation to measure the changes in earth's natural radiation envelope. Explorer IV also played a part by sampling nuclear activity. The results? Besides more new knowledge about space immediately above the atmosphere, evidence that high-altitude nuclear blasts won't stop enemy ballistic missiles.

to live another kind of life for a while. It was as simple as that."

This is Janet Gaynor's philosophy today:

"I never want to stick at any one point in life, and think that it is everything. You have to learn not to hold on to the past or look too hard to the future, but live each day."

"The essence of life is change, and we can hope the change means growth."

Liner Owners Claim
Tanker Was at Fault

NEW YORK (AP)—The owners of the cruise liner Santa Rosa say the tanker Valchem was to blame for the collision that killed four tanker sailors and brought a shattering climax to a Caribbean holiday for 247 passengers.

A "radical course alteration" was made by the tanker, the Santa Rosa owners say. There was no immediate comment from the operators of the Valchem.

Conflict over whether there was fog at the time of the crash highlighted the preliminaries to a Coast Guard investigation starting Monday.

Spokesmen for the Grace Line, owner of the Santa Rosa, said the collision off Atlantic City, N.J., at 3 a.m. Thursday occurred in only patchy haze. They said the Valchem had been sighted both visually and by radar.

But a Santa Rosa lookout, a number of passengers and several injured crewmen of the tanker said there was thick fog in the collision area 22 miles off the coast.

Seventeen of the crew of the Valchem were injured, in addition to one known dead and three missing and presumed dead. The Santa Rosa brought the injured here and they were taken to the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital on Staten Island.

None of the 247 passengers and 265 crewmen on the Santa Rosa was injured when the 25-million dollar liner knifed into the tanker.

RECOVERS OWN CLOTHES

Investigating a cleaning plant theft, Sparkman said he found three pairs of pants of his own, plus his sports jacket and a suit, at White's Royal Oak Township home.

White was held in $2,000 bond on his plea of innocent.
